s:

Family Fun Night at Scallywag: this was a GREAT time and very easy to plan, I would imagine we may do it again next year,

Salute to Students 3rd & 5th grade luncheon: after this being cancelled the first time due to snow, it was rescheduled and a very nice time for the students,

Parent Seminar: unfortunately there was not a big turn-out for this seminar, but the info was very good,

Mom & Son Beach Ball: this event was a great success this year and a very fun time was had by all,

Charlie Cadabra: this was a treat provided by the PTO for Catholic Schools Week, the younger grades THOROUGHLY enjoyed it and were so cute to watch, the older grades weren't as impressed but enjoyed the time out of class, and

Open House: it was a huge success and very enjoyable for all the families who attended.

Naturalization Feb 25-26: Laurie Jung met with the 8th grade teachers and Chris Sillies. Chris has everything in order. 8th grade students will be helping 11th: Hospitality volunteers have it covered.

18th

Magazine Drive kick-off Feb 23rd: All profits from this go to the new playground.

3 turn-in dates are March 4th, 11th, & 18th. need volunteers for these dates
the option we are considering distributed for review & comment save money by doing demolition and building new playground ourselves please forward info. of anyone who may be able to help

Michael Linnemann will see how he can help once the snow clears.

Recycling should be possible with the old playground.

Magazine Turn-in Dates: March 4th, 11th, & 18th: volunteers needed to collect the envelopes and distribute prizes;

Laurie can help on the 4th & 11th; Amy Roberts March 4th, Kathy D. on the 4th, Susan on the 11th & 18th; Autumn can work 2 days - when needed most List and letters are printed for 32 nominees.

Those who are interested will be invited to attend the March meeting (we will need to supply some snacks--if you are willing to bring a little something, let me or Debbie know). Kim Neyer, Kelly Bruns & Debbie Dorr will bring a snack

School supplies: Lisa Gillman

Patti Quinn has asked for the teacher lists. Has provided the deadline to Steffenie to get the forms into the acceptance packets for next year

Uniform exchange closet: Kendra Hennard the responsible non-board member (with Lisa Gillman) is looking for someone to take over her. Joi Martin will take over for the remainder of the year.

Spring Book Fair: Looking for a Chairperson. All books are going to be buy one get one free! It is not going to be set up really nice like the fall fair. Please let me know if you or anyone you know would be interested.
